Glossary

Probability:

A mathematical method to find the chance for helping the events.

Equally likely:

One event cannot be expected is preference of the other.

Independent events:

Actual happening of one does not influence in any way the happening of other.