

Glossary

Co-efficient:

In mathematics co-efficient is called as a numerical or constant quantity placed before and multiplying the variable in an algebraic expression.

Exponential function:

A mathematical function raised to the power of 'e' is called exponential function.