

Glossary

Integration:

A mathematical technique used to find the sum of continuous function between the given limits.

Rational function:

A Mathematical function involves numerator and denominator.

Trigonometric function:

A mathematical function obtained from the ratios of sides of right angle triangle.