

Summary

The lecture covers the growth and establishment of Greek Architecture. Also discusses is the various socio cultural, religious and climatic factors that influenced the development of Greek Architecture. The Hellenic period and its architecture is covered with examples. The lecture discusses in details the features of The Doric order and also the architecture of the Doric temple of Heraion, Olypmia.