

Summary

The lecture covers the early Basilicas of Rome with examples. The architecture and relevance of the Thermae or the Great Roman baths is discussed with examples. The lecture covers the public space architecture of Rome. Romans were great lovers of art, music and sports. Hence the architecture of theatres and amphitheatres are discussed with examples. The same is discussed with the Colosseum as the example.