

GLOSSARY

Environment -

The aggregate of surrounding things, conditions, or influences

Commodity -

An article of trade or commerce, especially a product as distinguished from a service.

Engineering -

The science of making practical application of the knowledge of pure sciences, as physics or chemistry, as in the construction of engines, bridges, buildings, mines, ships, and chemical plants.

Profession -

A vocation requiring knowledge of some department of learning or science