

Objectives

To learn about

- to Understand that the points, lines and planes are the building elements of any form.
- to Understand the inherent qualities of each of the elements and finding relevance in space making.