

Objectives

To learn about

- to Understand that architecture has to cater to various needs of human beings.
- to Understand the significance of the psychological and the aesthetics needs that makes architecture special over a normal building.