

Assignment

1. How door has be used as a significant architectural element in history?
2. What are the potential characteristics of the element window?
3. Explain with an example how stairs solves purpose more than that of movement?