

GLOSSARY

Structure -

In the context of the lecture, structure refers to the building structural system.

Movement –

Movement refers to the movement of the human being in an built environment.

Facade –

The elevational front plane of a building.

Image making -

The act of creating a memorable visual image through the form of the building or the building element.