

GLOSSARY

Interlocking –

The three dimensional representative of the previous two dimensional forms reveals the invasive nature of the interlocking spaces.

Adjacent -

Lying near, just before or after.

Organization -

The act of putting things together in relation to other; an act of composing thing together.

Cluster -

A group of things organized without a perceivable order

Spatial -

Pertaining to space