

Assignment

1. Write a note on the various types of force systems.
2. What is known as resultant of forces and mention its significance.
3. A rectangular block weighing 5KN rests on a surface inclined at 30 degree to the horizontal. Find the components of the weight along the sloping surface and normal to the sloping surface.