

GLOSSARY

Cantilever truss -

A horizontal truss supported at the middle and sustaining a load at one end or both ends.

Cantilever bridge -

A bridge formed by two projecting beams or trusses that are joined in the center by a connecting member and are supported on piers and anchored by counterbalancing members.