

SUMMARY

This session learnt about the concept of moment of inertia of a triangular section is explained with its derivation. Also the problems related to the calculation of moment of inertia of plane geometrical sections are solved.