

Objectives

- obtain an overall picture of Buddhist architecture by understanding the evolution of various building typologies across different geographical locations
- know the influence of Buddhist architecture in various regions through different examples