

Objectives

- obtain an understanding about the conception and evolution of temple form and architecture
- know the Various elements and categories of temple architecture through examples from different time periods