

Objectives

- To make the student understand the different types of protective coating and focusing on Primers, varnishes and enamel Protective coatings
- To educate the students on painting process, how to prepare a surface for painting and how to paint on the surface.
- To inform students on the various defects of painting and how or why it is caused