

Objectives

-to educate students on the appropriate practices of Storing timber, including how to stack timber on site.

-to teach the Various defects and decays or diseases that occurs in timber and the reasons/causes for the same; also discussing on techniques to avoid these defects and decays.