

Objectives

- to educate the students on the importance of Conservation & Preservation; and also the various methods of preserving timber.
- to make the students aware of the natural Fire Resistance of timber as well as how to increase the fire resistance of a timber product.