

Objectives

- to Understand load distribution system in a structure
- to define a beam
- to know the types of beams with practical examples.
- to familiarize the different types of supports and reactions
- to know the different types of loads
- to Understand the basic concept of shear force and bending moment
- to get conversant with sign conventions to be followed for shear force and bending moment