

Summary

The lecture covers the Birth and growth of Christianity, giving an understanding of various socio-cultural influences that led to the establishment of Christianity as the most widely followed religion in the world. The Basilican concept of Church planning is covered citing the example of St.Clemente and St.Peters Rome and Byzantine Architecture is discussed with examples.