

Summary

The lecture covers the Birth and establishment of Carolingian Renaissance, giving an understanding of various socio-cultural influences that led to the spreading of same in the society. Also Romanesque as a style of Architecture is discussed about along with the factors that led to the establishment of the Romanesque period, with a stress to the Italian Romanesque citing the example of the Pisa Group, Italy.