

Glossary

Acanthus: The acanthus leaf was used as a decorative motif on the Corinthian capital and later on the Composite capital. The form is a stylized version of the plant's long, slender leaves and pointed flowers.

Architrave: A main beam resting across the tops of columns. The moulded frame around a doorway or window.