

Summary

The lecture covers the Roman School of Renaissance and its influences. Bramante and his contribution towards renaissance architecture is discussed. Also discussed is Michael Angelo and his works in art and architecture. Mannerism in art, literature and architecture is covered with examples. Venetian school of Renaissance is discussed with the example of the Library of St.Marks and La Villa Rotonda and their significance.