

Glossary

Inlay - It is a technique by which different types of wood, marble or other precious materials are used to form a picture.

Aedicule (edicola): It is a small temple usually having a circular or octagonal shape used as a shrine for the statue of a god.