

Summary

Introduction to English Baroque Architecture and its features are discussed. The architectural style of Sir Christopher Wren is covered with the example of St Paul's Cathedral, London. An insight of Rococo architecture and the differences of the same from Baroque architecture have been discussed.