

Assignment

1. Case Study of any cement factory
2. Identifying the various raw materials that go into a cement manufacturing process
3. A listing of the various safety and hazardous situation with respect to handling of cement
4. Identifying the various environmental impacts of cement and its manufacture
5. Offering solutions to make cement a lesser impact on environment and also study alternative materials to substitute cement