

Objectives

To learn about

- a picture of the most important component of concrete which is basis of most construction - cement
- Understanding the brief history of cement and its role in the past of architecture
- the Understanding of various properties of cement and hence its applications
- Studying the manufacture of cement and tests to maintain its desired quality
- a brief look at few Types of cements