

Assignment

1. Attempting simple field tests to test samples of sand
2. Attempting simple field tests to test samples of coarse aggregates
3. Visiting a construction site to understand the various on field tests that can be conducted to test the quality of sand, water and coarse aggregates
4. Making a comprehensive list of the grades and standards one has to maintain to get best concrete in given set of practical conditions on site of construction