

Objectives

To learn about

- Understanding the components that go into making of concrete
- The sources , classification , basic properties , testing and quality of each of the components have been discussed
- Studying the various Properties of sand and its classification
- Studying the Properties of coarse aggregates and their impact on concrete
- Studying the sources and quality of water which bear an influential factor in the making and curing of concrete