

Summary

This session would try to understand the concept of biodiversity. It will further delve into the importance of hotspots and their relevance to the ecosystem. It will also try to study the different endangered species and will also try to comprehend the concept of biodiversity.