

Summary

This session would try to comprehend the nuances of solid waste management. It will study the different methods of segregation, collection and disposal.