

Summary

This session would try to study the details with respect to solid waste management. It will also analyze the role of an individual to reduce and minimize pollution. It will study the importance of disaster management plan, the importance of mitigation and preparedness.