

Summary

This session will study the importance of sustainable development and study the different details of urban problems related to energy conservation and other resources. This session will also help us comprehend the ways to conserve water.