

Summary

This session will study the importance of rain water harvesting. This session would try to study the different details of watershed management. This session will also help us comprehend the resettlement and rehabilitation of people and the problems surrounding this.