

Summary

This session will help us comprehend the resettlement and rehabilitation of people and the problems surrounding this. It will study the importance of NGO. This session would try to study the different details of environmental ethics.