

Objectives

- to comprehend the importance of reducing waste by studying a few examples
- to Study the details of the different types of environment protection acts brought out by the legislation