

Summary

This session will help us comprehend the repercussions of population growth. This session would try to study the different details of family welfare programme in our country. It will also delve into the importance of balance between the environment and human health.