Glossary

| Extinction | The irrevocable elimination of species; can be a |        |        |         |        |    |    |
|------------|--|--------|--------|---------|--------|----|----|
|            | normal process of the natural world as species   |        |        |         |        |    |    |
|            | out-compete                                      | or     | kill   | off     | others | or | as |
|            | environment                                      | al con | dition | s chang | ge.    |    |    |

Famines Acute food shortages characterized by large-scale loss of life, social disruption, and economic chaos.

| Floodplains | Low    | lands    | along     | riverbanks,    | lakes,   | and |
|-------------|--------|----------|-----------|----------------|----------|-----|
|             | coastl | ines sub | ojected t | o periodic inu | ndation. |     |

| Forest     | Scientific planning and administration of forest |  |  |  |  |  |
|------------|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| Management | resources for sustainable harvest, multiple use, |  |  |  |  |  |
|            | regeneration, and maintenance of a healthy       |  |  |  |  |  |
|            | biological community.                            |  |  |  |  |  |

| Groundwater | Water   | held     | in    | gravel   | deposits   | or    | porous    | rock  |
|-------------|---------|----------|-------|----------|------------|-------|-----------|-------|
|             | below   | the ea   | arth  | 's surfa | ce; does r | not i | include v | water |
|             | or crys | stalliza | ation | n held b | y chemica  | al bo | onds in   | rocks |
|             | or moi  | sture    | in u  | pper so  | il layers. |       |           |       |

| Gully   | Removal of layers of soil, creating channels or               |
|---------|---|
| Erosion | ravines too large to be removed by normal tillage operations. |

Rocks Crystalline minerals solidified from molten magma from deep in the earth's interior; basalt, rhyolite, andesite, lava, and granite are examples.