

Summary

This session would try to explain the importance of dams and the problems related to the same. It will further delve into the use and exploitation of mineral resources. It will go on to analyze the environmental effects of extracting and mining.