

Summary

This session would try to explain the details of food resources and the issues surrounding it like effects of modern agriculture. It will further delve into the importance of energy resources encompassing both the renewable type and no -renewable type.