

Summary

This session would try to understand the different sources of energy and also discuss alternate forms of energy. It will further delve into the importance of land resources and issues like degradation, soil erosion. It will further discuss different measures to conserve natural resources.