

Summary

This session would try to understand the flow of energy in an ecosystem. It will further delve into the importance of ecological succession. It will also try to comprehend the concept of biodiversity.