

Assignment

1. Listing of various products of iron and iron ore to understand the chronology of ferrous metal use.
2. Listing of various elements of architecture and interior design that make the use of ferrous metals both directly and indirectly.
3. Live case study of famous works of architecture from British or pre independence era in India and identifying the uses of cast or wrought iron.
4. Making an exercise on studying the various elements of architecture and products that can apply use of ferrous metals to present day.