Objectives

To study waste water treatments and disposal and sewer lines arrangement for all types of buildings. To have a thorough understanding of how waste water is managed in various types of buildings.