

Summary

This lecture gives the basic understanding of the sewage treatment plant process in detail. The primary treatment process, secondary treatment process and tertiary treatment process with its various components in have been elaborated.