

Objectives

To study the basic principles of storm water drainage and rain water harvesting for all types of buildings. To have a thorough understanding of how efficiently rain water is managed in various types of buildings.