

Summary

This lecture gives the basic understanding of sanitation and its basic principles. The sewerage system and its various types are explained. This gives a better understanding of drainage systems for a small campus or residential neighbourhood.