

Objectives

1. To understand the basic concept behind the limit state method of RCC structures
2. To understand about characteristic strength of materials and characteristic load
3. To understand about partial safety factor
4. To explain basic assumptions made in limit state of collapse – flexure
5. To explain about the stress-strain relationship of concrete and steel