

Objectives

- to understand the style that is referred as Chicago school and its importance in the history of architecture.
- to understand the origin and development of the Chicago School style.
- to critically analyze the famous buildings associated with this style and understand the character of it.
- to understand the rise of skyscrapers from the bare beginnings of Chicago School of architecture.
- to understand the use of functional aesthetics and the importance of economics in architecture.